

SO East Herts Dance Club Perform to 9,000 Saracens supporters

A new Special Olympics East Herts dance club which is run in partnership with Saracens were invited to perform at half-time at the home ground of Saracens Rugby Club on Sunday 9th December 2019. Saracens were playing Cardiff Blues and won 51 – 25.

Amy Gregg Head of Dance at Amwell View School and one of the Dance Coaches at the club said “What a brilliant day, the sun was shining and the participants were all smiling. They all performed with enthusiasm and joy and showed their love for dance. I couldn't have been prouder.”

The Dance Club had nine dancers aged between 8 and 23 and performed at Allianz Park the home of Saracens Rugby Club and danced in front of 9,000 people.

One of the parents sent a message to Amy the following day saying “I want to say a huge thank you to you and your team yesterday, it was truly fantastic. We are grateful for giving our daughter this opportunity.”
